

STANTON.

(By P. O. Derthick.)

Rev. J. C. Hanley was in Lexington, Friday.

Miss Lillie Milton of Winchester was here Tuesday.

Mrs. Callie Davis, Clay City, was with home folks over Sunday.

Guy Frazier left Sunday for Cincinnati. He will probably go on to Detroit.

Charley Rice and Os Johnson left Thursday for Lexington to do some painting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Catron visited with Moss Faulkner's folks at Bowen Sunday.

Mrs. Nelson Blount was called to see her daughter, Mrs. Anna Melroy, at London, Ky.

Mrs. Mattie O'Rear of Cincinnati, has arrived for a visit to her father, Toby Anderson.

Marion Atkinson is in Detroit where he has a good position. He will probably not teach this year.

Wm. Johnson was in Lexington one day last week on business.

Herbert Jones left Thursday for his home in West Virginia. He will not return for school next year.

Stauder Snowden, of Lexington, was here visiting kin folks and taking in Commencement, last week.

Miss Golden Shackelford is visiting in Nada for a few days and will leave this week for her home in Perry county.

Charley Jackson of Cincinnati, arrived Sunday and will visit his mother, Mrs. John Jackson, before returning home.

Ben Sewell of Jackson, accompanied by Martel Crawford, came down Tuesday for a visit with Wm. Hardwick and family.

Beginning next Sunday, the morning train will go on to Quick sand instead of Beattyville. This will be good news to those who go beyond Maloney.

H. M. Washburn and wife, who have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Martha Derthick, left Saturday for Versailles and other points in the State.

Misses Lillie and Maude Boone, Anna Clark, and Mrs. Robt. Conlee, Wm. Hardwick and the writer, will attend the 13th District Sunday School convention at Jackson June 2nd to 4th.

Miss Beatrice Blount left last Wednesday for Muskingum College in Ohio, which she will enter for the coming year. This is a fine school, we are told, and we wish Beatrice much success.

Bob Stone is doing some papering at Hanley's this week. He sure knows how to do the work. He and Jim Stone are also painting the house of Mrs. Williams, where Prof. Ranson now lives.

The new depot will be started soon. Plans are being made for its location. It will set farther back from the track and a fill will be made at the back so that a new driveway can be made for handling traffic.

Beatty Lutes, of Covington, was here this week in the interest of Normal School work, but owing to the heavy rains Monday he went on to Beattyville till the weather clears up. He taught school at Beattyville for several years, and is a fine young man.

H. C. Faulkner.

Judge H. C. Faulkner, whose formal announcement as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, appears in this issue, is a typical mountain man. He was born in Whiteley county, Ky. in 1860, and moved with his father's family to Knox county in 1867, where he remained until 1915, when he moved to Hazard. He began the practice of law in Barbourville in 1885 and was County Superintendent of Schools in Knox county from 1886 to 1890, and Judge of the 27th Judicial District, comprising Knox, Laurel, Clay, Jackson, Leslie and Owsley counties, from 1901 to 1909, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of law. Judge Faulkner, by his experience on the bench has qualified himself legally for the high office he aspires to and his many friends, who know him personally, can vouch for his integrity and fairness in both public and private life. No man in the district is better qualified for a place on the Court of Appeals bench and, if elected, he will be a credit not only to himself, but to the district from which he is sent.

SLADE.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley visited relatives here Sunday.

Born, to the wife of Ancil Centers, on Thursday, May 25, a fine daughter.

Garth Bowen is out again after being confined to the house for some time with measles.

Caudill Bros. bought several head of cattle from I. H. McDaniell and George Forkner last week.

We had quite a hailstorm here Sunday but so far no damage has been reported. The rain did a lot of good.

Miss Maude Hanks, of South Fork, visited Miss Iva Ford Saturday and Sunday, and attended church here.

W. B. Congleton lost a valuable mare last week shortly after she was put on pasture with her colt at Millers Creek.

Mesdames Enza Stewart, Mollie Lawson and Maggie Nicholls, of Nada, visited Mrs. Minnie Forkner one day last week.

Rev. L. F. Martin, of Clay City, preached several good sermons at the church here, and there is talk of calling him for a year. He also preached at Tintown Sunday afternoon.

Cephas Fletcher was shaking hands with friends here last week. Mr. Fletcher has been living in Tennessee for some time but is moving to Arkansas, where he will engage in the timber business with E. B. McGlone and others.

Sunday Services

During June, July and August, the Sunday School of the Presbyterian church will be held at 9:30 A.M., and the preaching service at 10:30 A.M., every Sunday. A Twilight Service will be held at the school-house of the Orphans' Home every Sunday evening at 6:00 P.M. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Lula Derickson, of Lexington, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Tomlinson, of Nada, spent Sunday with Wm. Johnson and family.

Henry Townsend, of Radical near Lee county, was here on business over Friday night last week.

The Clay City Construction Co. built the new chimneys in the renovated residence of Mr. Waldron, in Mechanicsville.

Granville Crabtree, living near Fitchburg, came down Saturday evening to be with his mother, Mrs. Cox, in her sickness.

Mrs. W. T. Adams returned Thursday from Alabama, where she was called a few weeks ago by the death of her brother. She was accompanied by little Irma Russell.

The Daughters of America had an interesting meeting Friday night at which, we understand, some new members were initiated. They are quite strong here.

Magistrate Robert Dennis, the new member of the Fiscal Court, took his seat last Saturday with that body. Mr. Dennis is a good public-spirited citizen and the people of his neighborhood will be well represented.

Some Stanton parties sold a car of hogs to driver McDonald of Mt. Sterling, last week. Among those having hogs in the shipment were John Williams, Jeff Martin, J. S. Emeu and E. H. Fuller. The 102 head averaged about 200 pounds each, and were in good shape.

Rev. Cleo Purvis and Mrs. Purvis arrived in town Friday night after a honeymoon trip to Cincinnati and other points following their marriage in Richmond last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Purvis received a warm welcome to Clay City and their many friends are glad to see them settle here. They are domiciled in the Thos. Edge property in the East End.

To Run Excursion.

A movement is on foot to have an excursion to Natural Bridge by the Sunday School of the county, and the event will likely take place about June 16, although the date has not been finally settled yet. Such an excursion would make an ideal outing for both the young folks and the old, and would draw a large crowd. Get behind this move and help the Committee out.

Clear Skin Comes From Within

It is foolish to think you can gain a good clear complexion by the use of face powder. Get at the root of the trouble and thoroughly cleanse the system with a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Gentle and mild in action, do not gripe, yet they relieve the liver by their action on the bowels. Good for Young, adults and aged. Go after a clear complexion to-day. 25c. at your druggist.

King Emerald Chief 4396

King Emerald Chief will make the ensuing season at the stable of J. C. Patrick, near Stanton College, at the low price of TEN DOLLARS to insure a living colt.

King Emerald is a son of Emerald Chief, of World's Fair fame. He stands 16 hands and is a beauty. Why send your mares to Clark or Montgomery when you have a horse at home, second to none in Kentucky? He is a half brother to Emerald Bell, that sold for $1250, and this amount was awarded Mr. Patrick for the mare by a Powell county jury and also by the Court of Appeals. He is also a half brother to Viola Allen, one of the beauties of the world, and sold for $1750 as a four-year old. There is no better breeding horse in Kentucky, as his colts show.

We also have a fine JACK, which will make the season at the same place at the fee of $8.00 To Insure a Living Colt.
